CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1955 of W.H.S., having been declared sane in mind (this is questionable), and sound of body by the local psychiatrist and physician, do bequeath the following items to the remaining students in W.H.S.

To the Jr. class, we, the senior class, will our ability to stay out of trouble.

I, Juanita Shirley Alexander will my long hair to Joel Krause.

I, Pat Sullivan will my ability to play football to Danny Erickson who needs it worse than I do.

I, Carol Emerson will my artistic ability to Mike Stephensen.

To Richard Dreger I, Chuck Johnson, will my fishing ability. I hope you catch your limit.

I, Lavonda Bodeau will my "nose to the wheel" driving tactics to Darryl Emerson.

I, Roberta Pearce leave my earring collection to Jane Anderson. May you have a change every day.

I, Rae Cook leave my pleasing personality to Marcia Stephenson, hoping that she will use it to the best advantage.

I, Marlene Kutkey will my height to Rodney Ladwig, in hopes he will make the football team next year.

I, Barbara Bell will my ways of getting along with teachers to Leonard Kutkey.

I, Beverly Fisher will my collection of rings to Marla Hume in hopes that she will add to the collection.

I, Melvin Novotney will my "attentiveness" in class to Merle Pfaffle. I hope you use it to the fullest extent.

I, Dean Bodeau will my ability to talk in study hall to Gloria Friedlander.

I, Alece Goodlake will my majorette position to Donna Miller.

To Carol Lynn Gibson, I, Lois Hammell, will my "hidden" talents.

To Clarence Cotton, I, Alan McKay, will my bachelor's trail.

I, Don Rolfe will my share of the senior class money to Wally Kluver for his future car.

I, Nora Kincaid will my sextet position to Darlene Hume. Keep in good practice.

I, Marilyn Jenkins will Gary Ladwig to Sandy Dare. Treat him well.

I, Louise Jerred leave my front seat in the bus to Loretta Alexander.

To Roberta Quirk, I, Verne St. John will my diamond-- under protest.

I, Donna Kay McConnell will my music ability to Willene Dreger hoping she will do as well as I.

I, Donnajean Swanson will my bashfulness to Gary Bell.

I, Donna Jean Stubbe, will my shorthand book to Carol Ann Fisher. Handle it with care.

Donna Jean Stubbe, and Don Rolfe

PROPHECY

One summer day in 1975 as I was resting on the porch of my home on my wheat ranch, I decided to fly East and purchase a new jet-propelled helicopter, invented by the genius Pat Sullivan, who was a former classmate of mine. After thinking over the progress that Pat had made these past few years, I began wondering what had become of my other classmates. So I left for Iowa to the Sullivan factory.

After landing in a big Des Moines airport, I was surprised to learn that the former Lavonda Bodeau was married to an Iowa pig farmer. I can't figure out what happened to her horse ranch.

After getting my new-fangled plane and learning just how to fly it, I decided I would look up all my former classmates. That night in Des Moines I decided to take in a lady wrestling match, Tootles Hair Puller vs. Ruthie, a championship bout. To my surprise and shock I found Tootles Hair Puller to be Lois Hammell. Being just a little scared of her, I decided I would not go back to the dressing rooms. By the way, Lois won the bout.

The next morning I heard that the former Rae Cook was now a big circus lady working for Barnum and Bailey who were playing in New York City. Anxious to see what her job was, I took off. Arriving just in time for the performance, I was surprised to see Rae as the world's fattest woman, 834 pounds. Later I talked to Rae and she told me the whereabouts of Donna Jean Swanson. It seems that Miss Swanson never married and is now the head of a sunshine colony (nudist camp) in Iceland. Due to these circumstances I did not visit her.

From New York I decided to fly to Paris. Before leaving I discovered that Donna Jean Stubbe, a famed racing swimmer, was swimming the Atlantic to save time in getting to the Olympics. She is an all-around athletic. She is married and has three small swimmers.

Then off to Paris, where I found Chuck Johnson, better known as Marlon Hudson, making a movie for Paramount. He is now Hollywood's top actor and singer and always surrounded by girls. He is still a bachelor, however.

Also in Europe I found the former Donna Kay McConnell touring with her husband Liberace. They make a great duet team.

In the far away country of Pakistan I found quite to my surprise Alece Goodlake, a hard boiled school teacher. She is married to a local Pakistan native and has eight children. She told me in hush-hush that Barbara Bell was behind the Iron Curtain passing out little red "commies" to her husband on the other side.

From here I flew to Los Angeles with a crash. It seems that something went wrong with that new-fangled plane of mine. In L.A. I hired a lawyer, Miss Verne St. John, to sue my friend, Mr. Sullivan. I did win the case, but I still can't feature Verne as a lawyer. She informed me, too, that she was running for attorney general of Calif.

I hired a car and drove to Hollywood and talked with Louise Jerred, who now works as Esther Williams's double in the under-water pictures. She is married to Monty Cliff and they have four children.

Driving back to L. A. I found my plane all fixed up ready to go. From here I flew to Reno where I found Roberta Pearce hunting for a man. She is starting her tenth hope-less chest. Too bad she is so shy. Roberta informed me that Melvin had a very unfortunate life. It seems that he is serving time in Alcatraz for something so bad she would not mention it. Since visitors were not allowed, I was unable to see him.

I forgot to mention, but I'm sure you all know, that Alan McKay is the Republican President of the United States. I was surely surprised to see him as a Republican, when he used to be such an ardent Democrat. He is married and has three children.

From Reno I flew to the old town of Wilbur, a little east of my home in Almira, where I found Carol Emerson using her artistic ability in sculpturing cattle at McIntroy Meat Company. She has been unable to leave her profession to find a man.

On to Nespelem where I found Juanita Alexander running her own night club. She has weekly dances which, according to her, are quite successful. Juanita sent me on over the hill to a lumbercamp, where I was surprised to find Nora Kincaid cooking. Her cooking agrees with her because she weighs 352 pounds. She sent me back to Creston, where I found Marilyn Jenkins, an astronomer, who has a huge observatory on Creston Butte.

From here I went into Spokane and visited Don Rolfe, the new owner of Ciro's No. 2 located on Trent Avenue. His business is growing rapidly.

Nearby I found Beverly Fisher, who was in the process of divorcing her eighth husband after her seven other ones had committed suicide because Bev wouldn't let them leave her to marry the fabulous Marlene Kutkey, a night club blues singer, who works at Don's Ciro No. 2.

It was back home for me. It was all a tiring trip, and I was glad to return to my wife and family of twelve kids.

ANNUAL STAFF

The 1954-55 Editor of the Annual, Lavonda Bodeau, with Mrs. Miller's help, has chosen this year's annual staff.

This year, like last year, we are sending our material to Myers Yearbook in California to be completed. We shall receive them in September, 1955.

With the cooperation and work of the annual staff and the wonderful help of Mrs. Miller, Danny Erickson, Mr. Siegel, and Mr. Pease, we know the 1955 Tomahawk will be a great success.

SEXTETTE

Members of the Sextette are all seniors. They have entertained at many different functions and have been enjoyed by everyone.

LEFT TO RIGHT: JoAnn Coleman, Verne St. John, Marilyn Jenkins, Sandra Dare, and Alece Goodlake.

Majorette try-outs were held at the beginning of the year. Those chosen were; Drum Majorette-Marilyn Jenkins; Twirlers-Alece Goodlake, Verne St. John, Sandra Dare, and JoAnn Coleman.

These girls performed at two basketball games and one football game. They marched with the band in the Western Marching Contest at Grand Coulee.

The majorettes have two sets of uniforms. The drum majorette's uniforms are both gold with red trim. The twirlers have a red corduroy uniform trimmed with gold and a white wool one trimmed with red.

CHEERLEADERS

This year three cheerleaders were chosen by the student body after try-outs.

They were Beverly Fisher, Donna Kay McConnell, and Pat Krause.

They served as yell-leaders throughout 1954-55. They attended all of the conference and non-conference games of the season in both football and basketball. They added much to the cheering section by introducing new yells and showed their pep by leading many of the old favorites.

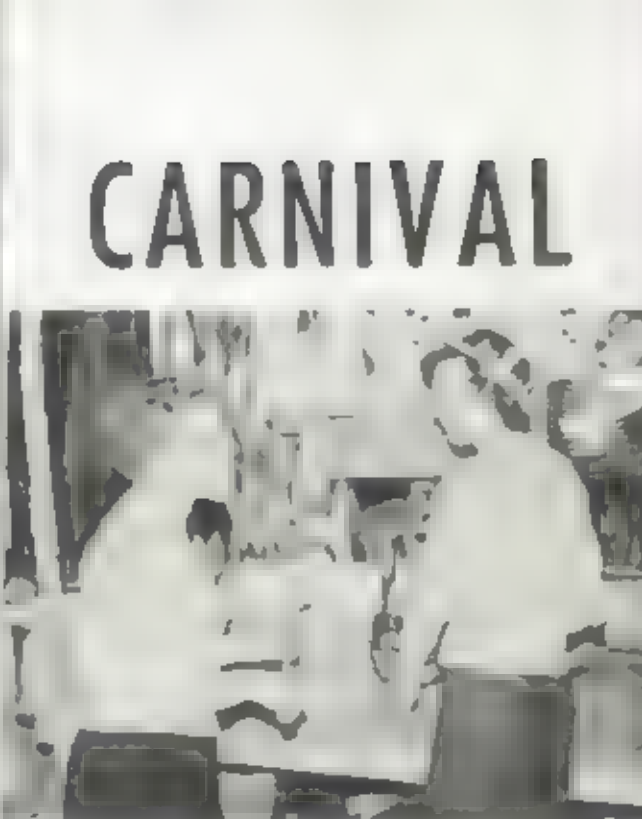

During football season their uniforms were red corduroy slacks and gold sweat shirts. During the basketball season they wore red felt dresses trimmed with gold.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

The second semester council officers were:

President Dean Bodeau
 Vice Pres John Watson
 Sec Colleen McMillan
 Treas Marlene Kutkey

The second semester council proposed an amendment to the student body constitution, that the Sage editor could be eligible for president of another organization. This amendment was voted on by the student body, but it lost.

The council financed a trip to Spokane for the basketball players.

The advisor was Mr. Pease.

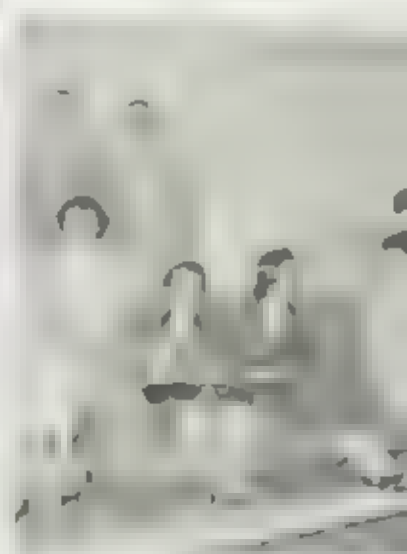

SEATED: Mr. Pease, John Watson, Dean Bodeau, Colleen McMillan, Marlene Kutkey STANDING: Bobby McConnell, Danny Erickson, Rae Cook, Joel Krause.

SENIOR DANCE

The old wishing well.

Couples at the dance.

On December 4, 1954, the annual Senior Dance was held in the hot lunch room from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. "This Ol' House" was chosen as the theme. The gym was decorated with different colors of wallpaper, crooked pictures, and broken windows.

Standing in an improvised well, the eighth grade girls served punch.

Music was provided by the Kinman Business University Orchestra.

"The Christmas That Bounced"

"The Least of These"

CHRISTMAS

On December 23 the senior class under the direction of Mrs. Miller presented two one-act plays for the high school.

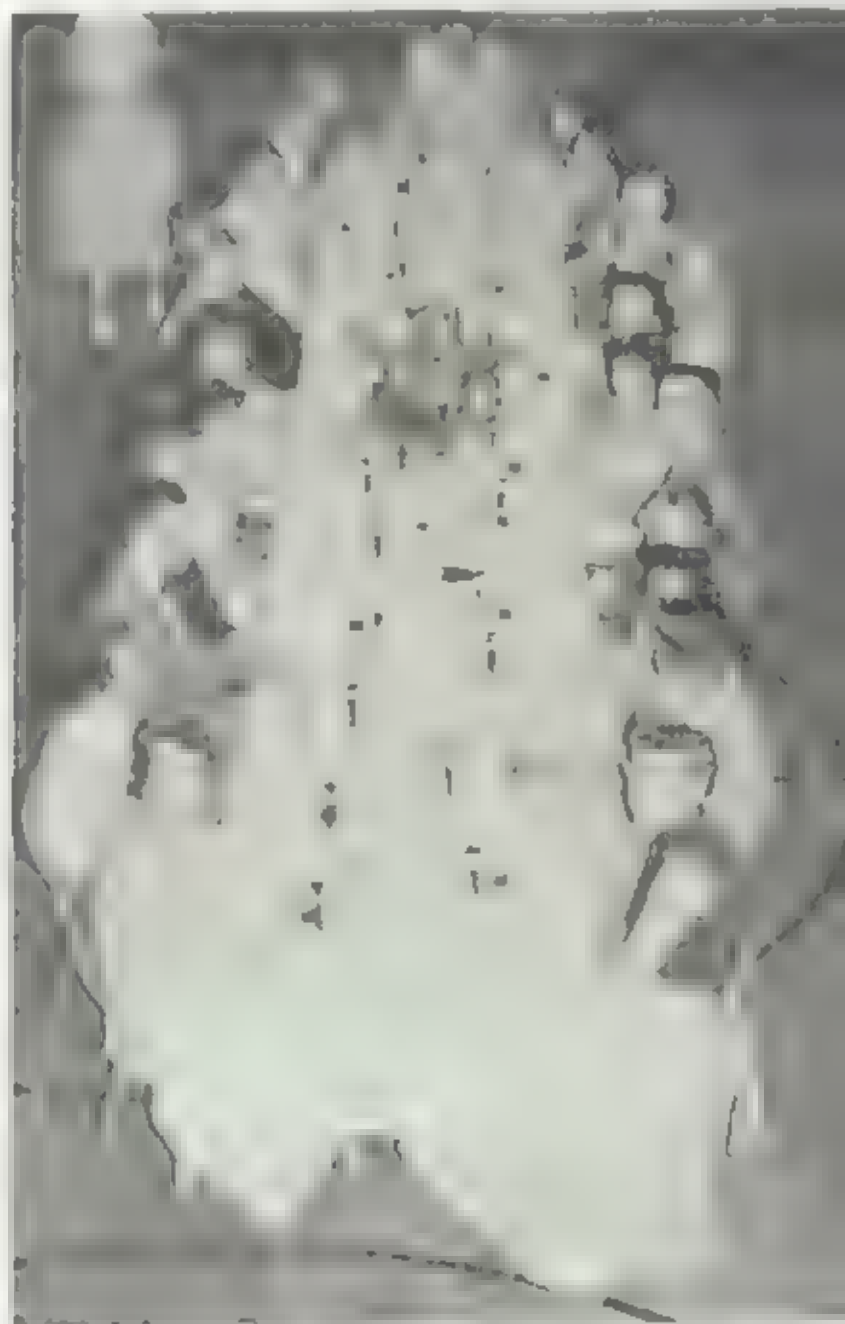

"The Christmas That Bounced" was a Christmas comedy about the trouble that can come from giving the wrong presents to the wrong people. The characters were: Nora Kincaid, Donnajean Swanson, Alan McKay, Donna Jean Stubbe, Marlene Kutkey, Melvin Novotney, and Verne St. John.

"The Least of These" is a comedy about a party given by two old ladies for some children--and what children! The characters were: Donna Kay McConnell, Rae Cook, Charles Johnson, Carol Emerson, Don Rolfe, Alece Goodlake, Louise Jerred, Beverly Fisher, Roberta Pearce, and Dean Bodeau.

Instead of the usual exchanging of gifts, the Student Body sent their gifts to the Washington Childrens' Home.

JUNIOR PROM

"South Pacific" was the theme of the annual Junior Prom which was held April 10 in the large gym. The theme was carried out very effectively by palm trees, a volcano silhouette, orchid flowers spelling out the theme, and two grass hats. Dancing was held from 10:00 until 12:30 with music provided by Skip Conner's Serenaders.

At 10:30 the Grand March was held consisting of juniors and seniors and their dates. At the end of the Grand March, the junior class president, Danny Erickson, crowned Dean Bodeau and Donna Jean Stubbe, King and Queen of the prom. The King's crown was of gold foil and the Queen's was made of the prom. The King's crown was of gold foil and the Queen's was made of white carnations. They were presented with gifts.

SENIOR PLAY

"All in the Family," a light hearted comedy, was presented to the public on April 1.

The belief of the genius son that the home is disintegrating caused the turmoil of the senior play.

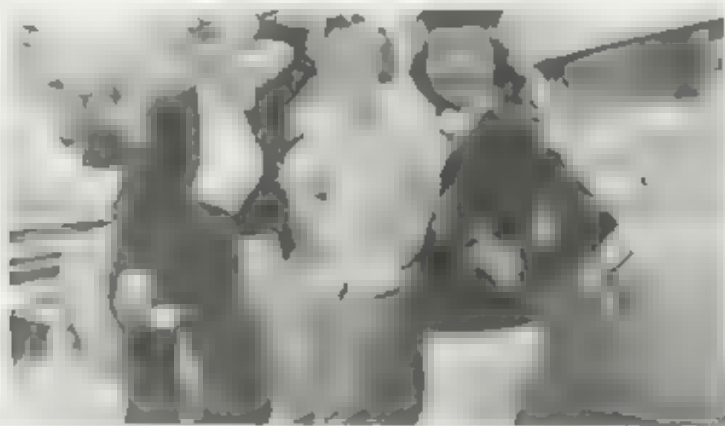

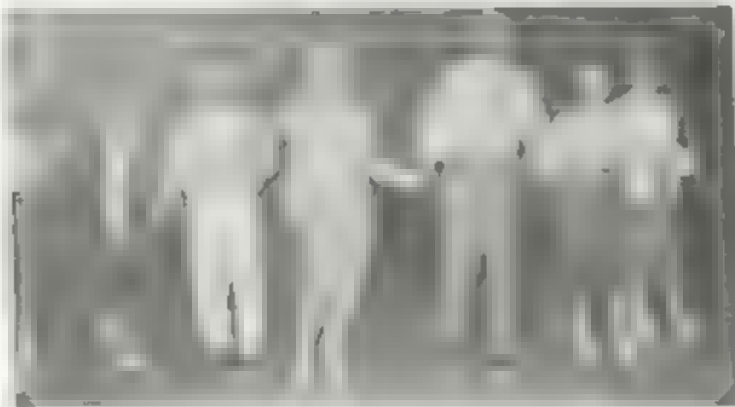

The cast was as follows:

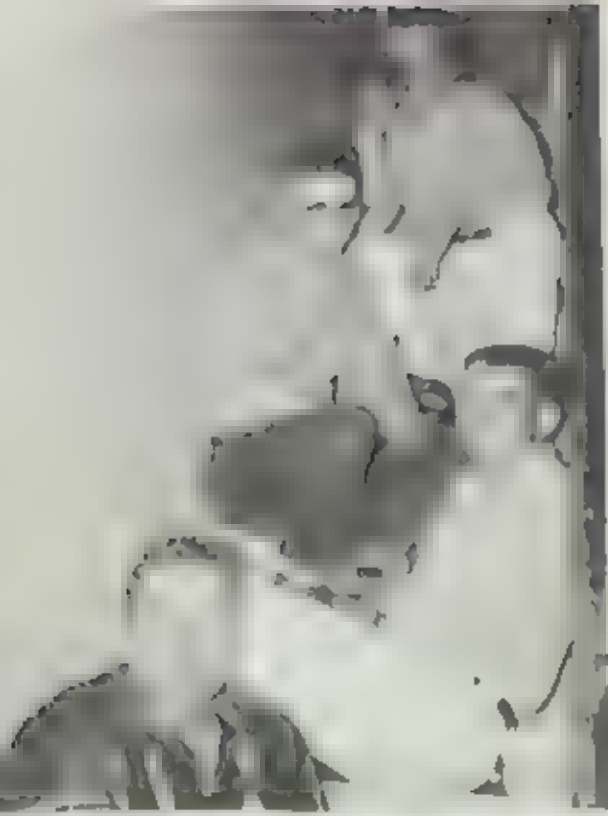

Martha Miller Carol Emerson
 Fred Miller Melvin Novotney
 Doris Miller Donna Jean Stubbe
 George Miller Joel Krause
 Henry Graybill Don Rolfe
 Miss Muller Rae Cook

Biff Sweltzer Dean Bodeau
 Betty Lou Lavonda Bodeau
 Jane Donna Jean Swanson
